

Thanks to the following Helena business leaders for participating in the Helena Education Foundation's

TRADING PLACES 2008

BUSINESS LEADERS <> HELENA PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Hal Harper , Policy Director, Governor's Office	Greg Upham , Helena High School
Keith Kelly , Director, Montana Department of Labor	Claudia Morley , Helena High School
Brad Johnson , Secretary of State	Randy Carlson , Capital High School
Dave Donohue , Senior Hydrogeologist, HydroSolutions	Jimm Conley , Capital High School
Tanya Ask , Vice President, New West Health Services	Don Wood-Foucar , Project for Alternative Learning
Tom Trebon , President, Carroll College	Bruce Campbell , CRA Middle School
Michelle Richardson , DVM, The Animal Center	Lisa Lowney , CRA Middle School
Dave Gibson , CEO, Qwest	Tom Lipp , Helena Middle School
Holly Kaleczyc , Director, The Friendship Center	Lona Carter-Scanlon , Jefferson Elementary
Cheryl Liedle , Sheriff, Lewis & Clark County	Brian Cummings , Jim Darcy Elementary
Billie Shepard , Owner, The Pan Handler	Karen Stout-Suenram , Kessler School
Gina Wiest , Director, Lewis & Clark Humane Society	Kareen Bangert , Rossiter Elementary
Casey Kyler-West , News Director, Beartooth NBC	Donna Erwin , Four Georgians School
Jeff Folsom , Director of Comm. Development, AWARE	Denise Wheeler , Broadwater Elementary
Ed Tinsley , Chair, Lewis & Clark County Commission	Merry Fahrman , Central Elementary
John Doran , Editor, The Independent Record	Pam Wright , Smith Elementary
Hal Robbins , Senior Engineer, Bison Engineering	Jim Opitz , Activities Administrator

Objectives of Trading Places:

- Increase business leaders' understanding of Helena's public schools and the role of building administrators and to experience first hand the responsibilities principals face daily;
- Increase Helena Public School administrators' connections with the community and their understanding of the business world;
- Provide a forum to discuss common leadership issues;
- Share ideas and a sense of responsibility for public education.

Bruce Campbell, CR Anderson Middle School Principal, Bob Tipton, CR Anderson math teacher, and Dr. Tom Trebon, President of Carroll College try to solve a 6th grade geometry problem during Trading Places 2008.

Another Class Act by the Helena Education Foundation

WWW.HEFMT.ORG ■ (406) 443-2545 ■ HEF@MT.NET