

Thanks to the following Helena business leaders for participating in the Helena Education Foundation's

TRADING PLACES 2009

BUSINESS LEADERS <> HELENA PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Tim Burton , Helena City Manager	Greg Upham , Helena High School
Bernadette Franks-Ongoy , Disability Rights Montana	Steve Thennis , Helena High School
Steven Maly , Helena Civic Television	Don Wood-Foucar , Project for Alternative Learning
Dick Anderson , Dick Anderson Construction	Bruce Campbell , CRA Middle School
Martha Williams , Montana Fish Wildlife and Parks	Josh McKay , Helena Middle School
Mark Huber , U.S. Bank	Lona Carter-Scanlon , Jefferson Elementary
Jim Lynch , Montana Department of Transportation	Brian Cummings , Jim Darcy Elementary
Patricia Turner , U.S. Postal Service	Karen Stout-Suenram , Kessler School
Jim Rickman , Independent Record	Kareen Bangert , Rossiter Elementary
Paul Fetz , Helena Brewers	Melinda Thompson , Four Georgians School
Mary Sexton , Montana DNRC	Sue Johnson , Broadwater Elementary
Bobbie Ecklund , Great Harvest Bread Company	Pam Wright , Smith Elementary

Objectives of Trading Places:

- Increase business leaders' understanding of Helena's public schools and the role of building administrators and to experience first hand the responsibilities principals face daily;
  - Increase Helena Public School administrators' connections with the community and their understanding of the business world;
  - Provide a forum to discuss common leadership issues;
  - Share ideas and a sense of responsibility for public education.

www.hefmt.org

Great Schools are everyone's business

Another Class Act by the Helena Education Foundation

WWW.HEFMT.ORG ■ (406) 443-2545 ■ HEF@MT.NET